

Art-one inj is an Antimalarial medication for the treatment of multiple drug-resistant strains of Plasmodium falciparum malaria in children and adults

Composition: Each ampoule (1 ml) contains Artemether 80mg

Pharmacological Group: Antimalarial

Recommended Clinical

Art-one is a medication used for the treatment of malaria. This injectable form is specifically used for severe malaria rather than quinine

It is given by injection in a muscle. Its use is recommended for the treatment of chloroquine resistance falciparum malaria, including cerebral malaria.

Proposed Route of Administration: Intra muscular (IM) Injection

Proposed Dosage:

Adults: IM: Five days course with the dose of 480mg. once (80mg) daily for five consecutive days with the first dose doubled.

Children: IM: The first dose is 3.2mg /kg body weight, followed with 1.6mg/kg bodyweight every time from the 2nd day to 5th day.

Proposed Storage Conditions: Store below 30°C. Protect from light and heat.

Pack Size: 6x1ml ampoules

