

Painsa injection is a non-steroidal anti-inflammatory medicine with analgesic, antipyretic properties effective in Pain management, arthritic, tendinitis, and acute gout.

Composition: Each ampoule (3 ml) contains: Diclofenac Sodium 75mg

Pharmacological Group: Non-Steroidal Anti Inflammatory Drug

Proposed Route of Administration: Intra muscular (IM) Injection or Intra venous (IV) Infusion (minimum 100ml)

Indications:

Painsa injection is used for management of mild to moderate pain due to following indications

- Rheumatoid Arthritis
- Rheumatic Disease causing Pain & Stiffness
- Inflammation of the Tendon Lining of a Joint
- Gout
- Non-Radiographic Axial Spondyloarthritis

Proposed Dosage:

Adults:

IM Administration:

Once or twice daily by deep intragluteal or as directed by qualified Physician.

IV Infusion:

Maximum 150mg in 24 hours. By IV infusion diluted with 0.9% saline or 5% dextrose infusion solution up to minimum 100ml.

In moderate to severe postoperative pain, 75mg infused continuously over a period of 30 minutes to 2 hours

Children: Not recommended

Proposed Storage Conditions: Store below 25°C. Protect from light and heat.

Pack size: 5 ampoules * 3ml, 100ampoules box

Manufactured By: